Edwin Gilang Pratama

Web Developer & IT Consultant

Hello, I'm Edwin

My name is Edwin. I've been learning to program since I entered high school, starting from desktop applications, android mobile, and web applications. Since graduating from high school, I have worked at the IT consulting company Telkom Group, after, I attended undergraduate courses for employees every weekend by working on weekdays. My typical is loyal, hard worker, trying to get what he wants, never giving up, and always praying for something. You can contact me for more details
